

About Sunnyside Picnic Area

Sunnyside Picnic Area was owned by Charles W. Alpaugh from 1921 until 1932. He was president of the South Branch Power Company and a self-proclaimed “Pioneer Power Developer.” He proposed a plan to harness the waters of the South Branch by constructing a power plant to generate hydroelectricity, however, his venture never gained public support and the project was abandoned by 1928. This 63-acre property changed hands several times until 1975. That year, the County acquired the land as an addition to the South Branch Reservation.

Today, the South Branch Reservation encompasses over a thousand acres and helps preserve the watershed of the South Branch of the Raritan River. The reservation preserves wildlife habitat and provides recreational opportunities.

Awossagame Grove

This grove is dedicated to the residents of Hunterdon County who were lost on September 11th, 2001. “Awossagame” is the Lenni Lenape word that means “heaven” or “a sacred place.” Twenty trees were planted in the grove shortly after the tragedy, but at the time the number of victims had not been confirmed. Later, sixteen of the trees were dedicated, one for each county resident lost. A stone monument reads “To plant a tree is to trust in the future.” Five Arrowwood Viburnum bushes planted in the grove represent the five points of the Pentagon. Four benches along the riverbank symbolize the four planes that were lost that tragic day.

Recreational Opportunities

Along the trail, three picnic sites with grills are available for public use. The area just beyond the parking lot provides river access for canoes. Canoeing is a wonderful way to view wildlife, including waterfowl and aquatic reptiles like Painted Turtles.

Fishing

Adjacent to the South Branch of the Raritan River, Sunnyside offers a wonderful location for fishing. The river is stocked with Rainbow, Brook, and Brown Trout. A trail runs the length of the property and provides several points of access to the river. A state fishing license must be displayed while fishing along the river.

It is the policy of the County to provide reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities upon advance notice of need. Persons requiring accommodations should make a request at least two weeks prior to program attendance.
