

The GRANDPARENT Series

Calling All Senior Citizens of Hunterdon County

Are you concerned for your grandchildren? Great-grandchildren? Neighbors? Kids in our community? How do kids cope with their constantly changing world? Can your life experience, resilience, strength and grit benefit them in any way? The Hunterdon County Senior Center is sponsoring a FOUR PART LECTURE SERIES designed especially for seniors interested in learning about the challenges that face our youth everyday.

EDUCATION AND DISCUSSION TOPICS INCLUDE:

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| April 5, 2019 | Social Media and It's Impact on Youth –
Robert Castellano, Principal of JP Case Middle School |
| April 12, 2019 | Secrets Kids Keep, Lies Kids Tell and How to Talk to Kids About Both –
Colette Bails, School Counselor of JP Case Middle School |
| April 26, 2019 | Pills to Heroin – Hunterdon County Prosecutor's Office |
| May 3, 2019 | Talk Saves Lives Suicide Prevention –
Wendy Sefcik, American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP) |

We encourage you to attend all 4 talks, but it is not required.

All talks will be presented at the Hunterdon County Senior Center

- Four Fridays at 12:30pm.
- No charge for lectures, but REGISTRATION for each lecture will be required one week in advance.
- Look for more information in Seasoned Years, on the HC Website, and fliers at the Senior Center, 4 Gauntt Place, Flemington.

For more information, please call Jane or Kim at 908-788-1361

