

Stay In Touch: Join Hunterdon County On Facebook Today

Hunterdon County's Facebook page provides up to the minute information on events around the County as well as news, information and activities for all County Departments and Government offices. The County's main Facebook page can be accessed by clicking on this link: <https://www.facebook.com/HunterdonCountyNJ/>.

"Using technology to put information at our resident's fingertips is our continuing goal," said John E. Lanza, Freeholder Board Director. "Being able to know what is happening, when, where and knowing what number to call allows our community to be connected day or night. Social Media is a great tool with endless connectivity for all and we are happy to be on-board and reaching the next generation of Hunterdon County's residents."

Facebook serves as a portal to many other County Department and Divisions including: Public Safety, the Cultural & Heritage Commission, Parks and Recreation, Economic Development, The LINK, the County Library, the County Clerk's office and other elected and appointed officials. All of these accounts may be accessed by clicking the "follow" tab at the top of the Hunterdon County Facebook page.

Hunterdon County's Facebook updates residents with information about County such as roadway closings and bridge repair work, potential weather events, and services like the electronic waste drop off and shredding days. Freeholder Board Public Hearings, meetings, and government actions are also routinely updated.

Hunterdon County has so much to offer and the County Facebook page is a great resource. 'Friend' or 'follow' us today.
