MEDIA RELEASE – APRIL 21, 2017

HUNTERDON COUNTY WOMAN SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON FOR HER INVOLVEMENT IN CHILD ABUSE CASE

Hunterdon County Prosecutor Anthony P. Kearns, III, announced the sentencing of Nikki Roll, of Milford, NJ to three (3) years in New Jersey State Prison. Roll had previously been arrested by detectives from the Hunterdon County Prosecutor's Office and Holland Township Police Officers for endangering the welfare of a child, witness tampering, child abuse, and obstructing the administration of law. Roll's arrest came as a result of an investigation in July of 2014. In October of 2016, Roll started a jury trial on the charges before the Honorable Angela F. Borkowski, J.S.C., but pled guilty to the charges during the trial. On April 19, 2017, Judge Borkowski sentenced Roll to three years in New Jersey State Prison.

Prosecutor Kearns stated, "Today, justice was done for the victims. I commend them for their bravery in this case. I also want to thank the detectives, police officers, and assistant prosecutors who worked so hard to deliver justice for the victims. The abuse of a child is a horrible crime, which leaves lasting scars that are not visible. My office and the men and women of Hunterdon County law enforcement will continue to protect our most vulnerable victims and our most precious resource – the children of this county."
