

"Ocean" oil painting

Summer Art Class with Doris Terris
Fridays, July 1 to August 19 from 9:00AM to 12:00PM

All levels of artists are welcome and any media pastel, watercolor, or acrylic. Oil paints may be used with some restrictions for oil paint – ask for supply list for explanation. You may request a supply list for your chosen media upon registration.

Each student will select their own subject matter to paint or draw. It can be anything from realistic to abstract or conceptual. Bring photos of subject matter to use for painting. Your own photos or calendar pictures work well.

All students receive individual attention at their level, as well as group instruction.

Students must bring their own supplies.

The goal of this instructor is to help each student improve their skills to become a better artist.

PLEASE NOTE- Class size is limited.

Those on waiting list will be given priority for the next session.

*At the time of registering please advise of your skill level-beginner, intermediate or advanced and indicate the media in which you plan to work.
(Acrylic, Oil paint, Pastel or Watercolor)*
