PRESS RELEASE JUNE 5, 2019

RANDOLPH MAN CHARGED WITH MURDER

Hunterdon County Acting Prosecutor Michael Williams, Chief of Detectives Frank R. Crisologo and New Jersey State Police, Colonel Patrick Callahan announced a death investigation which resulted in a murder charge.

According to Acting Prosecutor Williams, "On June 3, 2019, State Troopers from the Troop B, Perryville Station, responded to an emergency call in Bethlehem Township regarding an assault in progress. After a brief struggle with the assailant, the police arrested Justin A. Love, age 19 of Randolph, NJ and charged him with aggravated assault on his grandfather, Roger R. Love, age 86 of Bethlehem Township, NJ, as well as aggravated assault on a law enforcement officer and resisting arrest. Shortly thereafter, the victim died while in transit to Hunterdon Medical Center as a result of his injuries. Mr. Love was subsequently charged with murder."

Acting Prosecutor Williams indicated that at no point during this incident was there any threat to the public.
