Acting Prosecutor Williams stated, “The holiday season is a great time for the community to come together to reach out and help those in need. This was a group effort that included the Hunterdon County Sheriff’s Department, United Way of Hunterdon County, Salvation Army, and many generous Hunterdon County residents. A special thank you goes out to Anthony Del Gaizo of Plaza Cleaners for volunteering to clean the donated coats. The support for this cause was overwhelming and serves as a testament to the goodwill and sense of community in Hunterdon County.”
